

Welcome to Eastgate SDA Church!

A message from Pastor Eric Saylor

When Stacie and I were in college we made a habit of swimming twice a week. This regular exercise was a wonderful escape from the mind-numbing books, papers, reports, and projects that consumed nearly every waking moment.

One of my favorite things to do as we swam was to stretch my ability to hold my breath. Sometimes I did this in the diving area, retrieving things from the fourteen-foot depths. Other times, while swimming laps, I swam as far as I could, holding my breath the entire length of the pool. At first, it's easy to not breath, but the further I swam the more my lungs burned and my mind yearned for a deep breath of oxygen. Obviously, I had to surface eventually.

Breathing is essential to life.

In the same way, prayer has been called "the breath of the soul." Prayer is necessary for spiritual life. But sometimes we think we can swim through life holding our spiritual breath. Rarely is this intentional. We just get so busy swimming, making it across the pool that we think we don't have time to stop to breath. Doesn't make sense, does it?

Tonight, Friday at 7:00 in the Fellowship Hall, we're starting the "Prayeradigm" experience where we'll be watching inspiring presentations by Pavel Goia and then we'll reflect on how we as a church can "breath" in prayer more intentionally.

Also, on Sabbath morning we're continuing our "Speaking to God" mini-series as we conclude our study of The Lord's Prayer in Matthew 6. I hope you can join in!

Thanks for continuing to love and respect each other as we travel this pandemic journey together. Please take the simple step of wearing a mask.

I pray you are blessed and encouraged this Sabbath!

~Pastor Eric.

Camp MiVoden Development

Appeal: 1 Timothy 4:12 “Don’t let anyone look down on you because you are young, but set an example for the believers in speech, in conduct, in love, in faith and in purity.”

Your support helps Camp MiVoden.

Mentioning Camp MiVoden in conversations brings many stories to mind and smiles to faces across the Northwest Seventh-day Adventist Community. It is a place that many of us grew up with and cannot wait to share with our loved ones. It is a place where we take first tentative steps of faith and is a place of fun, love, and growth in our continued journey with Christ.

Camp MiVoden's story has a COVID-19 chapter that contains changes and ongoing challenges. Despite COVID, camp has continued to be a safe sanctuary to learn about Christ and share experiences with friends and family, but camp continues to deal with financial challenges as a result of last-minute cancellations, and smaller rental group sizes.

Any tax-deductible contributions, gifts, or donations are an investment into this ministry. Please consider sponsoring a child to attend camp for the 2022 season and keep our youth camp ministry alive.

Prayer: Lord, we are thankful that our Conference has such a powerful ministry for our youth. Please richly bless the young people that will work there this summer as well as all the youth that will attend. May they be spiritually strengthened and emotionally blessed.

Mother's Room ~ Small Child Space for Fathers

Thank you to Jen Davy, Barbara, Larry & Josie Henderson for implementing gentle changes in our Mother's Room recently!

Our Mother's Room is to be a space for new mothers where they can care for the needs of their infants and toddlers and still be able to engage with and follow along with the worship process in the main sanctuary.

Fathers who may need to take their turn at caring for their young ones should be aware of a multi-use space in what we call our library. There are a couple of rocking chairs for calming little ones who may need to be snuggled. This room is also a transition room where training of little ones can take place as needed. This room will continue to be a multi-function room where committees and small groups can meet during the week and during Sabbath school time.

Sometimes as parents we find it challenging to deal with children who have not yet developed the ability to sit quietly during church. This library area may be a solution for these parents who are trying to deal with children and also remain engaged in the service.

As a church family; we want our young parents to know that we welcome them and their small charges into the space where we "do" church. Yet when needed, please be aware of the spaces that are available for you to use when little ones need to exercise their lungs, voices or feet 😊

Face to Face Weekly Prayer Meeting in the Church Youth Room!

This group meets every Wednesday Evening at 6:30. Please join us as we experience the power of the Holy Spirit being poured out on our church. "There is great need of secret prayer, but there is also need that several Christians meet together and unite with earnestness their petitions to God." – In Heavenly Places, p. 91. Questions? Please call Carol at 509-200-0587 or Dixie at 509-301-2827.

Introducing Small Group Opportunities

By Pastor Luke Self

A recent study out of Harvard University revealed that over a third of all Americans, and nearly two-thirds of young adults, experience “serious loneliness.” As you can imagine, living through a pandemic has only increased loneliness among us. While we may not be able to conquer the problem of loneliness across the nation, we at least want to ensure that everyone in our Eastgate Church family feels connected.

Why is connection so important? For one, God created humanity to be relational. He said, “It is not good that man should be alone” (Genesis 2:18). Because of our God-given relational nature, the Gospel is powerless to transform lives in a vacuum. Instead, life-transforming discipleship happens within the context of healthy community. This is why small groups are so critical to church life, and this is why we hope to start more small groups for our Eastgate Church family to join.

We know life is already busy, and we don’t want small groups to be yet another item on your ever-growing to-do list. How do we ensure that small group involvement is simple enough not to be burdensome and yet meaningful enough to make a difference? After much prayer, discussion, and consultation with other church leaders who have successfully launched small groups, we have a plan.

We’re currently looking for people to lead small groups that are defined by the following Five S’s:

- Semester-based. There will be three small group semesters in a year: fall, spring, and summer. Each semester lasts about twelve weeks, with a one-month rest/promotion period in between each semester. Why semester based? For one, it’s a lot easier to commit to something for twelve weeks than it is to commit to something indefinitely. It also gives leaders a chance to rest and recharge to avoid burnout.
- Shared Interest. Each group will gather around a shared interest or passion. There might be a running group, a vegan cooking group, a Revelation study group, or any other group you can think of. This makes it easier to incorporate a small group into your busy life. Joining a group based on shared interest means being able to do what you already enjoy doing, only with a small group of people. It also allows everyone, regardless of where they are on the faith spectrum, to participate and belong.
- Spiritual. Not every group will involve a Bible study or long seasons of prayer. That’s okay. Discipleship doesn’t only happen while studying the Bible and praying. Discipleship happens whenever and wherever the Spirit moves. We just ask that each leader include a spiritual moment, like a prayer or a brief devotional thought, and give the Spirit room to work while your group is birdwatching, or cooking, or knitting.
- Social. Some groups are social by nature, while others are more task oriented. To encourage all groups to connect socially, we ask that each group plan one social event, such as a potluck or a bowling night, during the semester.
- Service-oriented. Rounding off the holistic nature of these groups is the service dimension. We encourage each group to find a way to serve the community together at least once during the semester.

Of course, in order to have these types of groups, we first need people willing to lead them. If this sounds like the kind of group you’d be willing to lead, we’d love to hear from you. We’re planning a training session for Sabbath afternoon on March 19 for leaders wanting to lead groups for the summer semester (May through July). To express interest in leading a group, please contact Luke Self at luke.self@gmail.com or 503-312-4355. You can also tell the pastor or any of the elders, who will pass along your information to Luke. You do not need to commit to leading a group to attend the training event. Feel free to attend to learn more and ask questions to determine if it’s right for you.

Christian Aid Center Seeking Volunteer Assistance!

The Christian Aid Center is in need of two volunteers to cook breakfast in our community kitchen. There are two shifts available: Mondays from 6:15 to 7:45 am, and every other Wednesday from 6:15 to 7:45 am. For more information, contact Jeannette Regalado, Community Engagement Director at (509) 525-7153 ext. 114. You can also fill out an application at christianaidcenter.org.

THE CENTER ~ sponsored by the College Place Village Church

Each year the College Place Village Church helps make Christian education affordable for their member families with helpful tuition assistance and student work-match funds. A faithful group of Village members support this resource with generous, systematic contributions. A major portion of the financial resources for student aid also comes from revenue created by the Center. Sunday sales of donated furniture, clothing and household items at the Center, on 8th and Bade in College Place, creates $27,500 to $42,000 dollars per year for student aid. The Center leader, Steve Fuchs, and a team of dedicated volunteers are enthusiastic about helping families with Christian education expenses.

If you are in the market for gently used items instead of purchasing a brand new item at full price ~ the Center might be a place for you to visit. In addition to you getting what you need at a fair price you are also helping a sister church fund a portion of the financial support they offer their students attending our Adventist schools.

If you have more questions, Steve Fuchs would be glad bring some clarity regarding the Center. Steve Fuchs - fuchst900@yahoo.com

Keeping the financial health of our church in mind ~ Giving Plan

How your local church budget fits into "My Personal Giving Plan"

Like every family, the local church family has financial obligations to meet. Some are easy to see like power and heat, but many are not so obvious: children's magazines, Sabbath School Bible study guides, teaching supplies, staff salaries, cleaning services, church school operating expenses, property insurance, worthy student fund, and community outreach. These are but a few of the costs that must be met month after month as the local church seeks to be a light in the community. Because these expenses are constant, My Personal Giving Plan recommends that 3-5% of one's income be set aside for the local church budget. This systematic giving ensures that all share both in the blessings and the responsibilities of the local congregation.

The North American Division encourages the use of the "My Personal Giving Plan." This plan was developed as a guideline to assist members in systematic giving. The plan suggests that, in addition to returning 10% of a member's personal income as tithe, certain percentages may be dedicated as offerings to three main categories:

- Local Church Budget: 3-5%
- Conference Advance: 1-2%
(Education, evangelism, VBS, summer camps, and union magazines)
- World Budget: 1-3%

*Visit www.personalgivingplan.com to see a more extensive breakdown for each category.

Podcast Explores How the Seventh-Day Adventist Church Works

The Seventh-day Adventist Church in North America is at a crossroads. Younger Adventists in particular are questioning whether the church is relevant to their personal lives and the world they experience. In response, the Adventist Learning Community has launched "How the Church Works," an 11-part podcast that examines Adventist history, identity, and legacy, and Adventism's relevance in our changing world. RELIGIOUS LIBERTY CAMPAIGN 2022: January 8, until March 31, 2022

This is an annual event which celebrates freedom of conscience, a heritage and the blessing we received from our Constitutional Founders, but one that requires continual vigilance to maintain.

In harmony with holdings by the U.S. Supreme Court, the Seventh-day Adventist Church believes that government at any level does not have the constitutional right to instruct anyone how to pray, when to pray, and who to pray to, let alone what religion to believe in – if any at all.

The founders of the nation wisely sought to guard against the employment of secular power on the part of the church, with its inevitable result – intolerance and persecution.

Let's Pray Together: February 23, 2022

Provided by UCC prayer ministries

- Pray for our missionaries, who have answered the call to share Jesus to the ends of the earth. Pray that the power of the Holy Spirit will open doors for them to teach people about Jesus.
- Pray for Walla Walla University, that the staff and students will find and hold on to "Faith in God."
- Pray for LifeSource Community Adventist Church and their pastor, Ron Hessel. Pray they will put their trust completely in Jesus as they learn and share with their community.
- Pray for the Lewiston Orchards Eleventh Commandment church and their pastor, Justin Knapp. Pray that each member will reach One More for Jesus.
- Pray for Lewiston Adventist Church whose pastor is also Justin Knapp. Pray they can share the love, joy and peace of Jesus to their community.
- Pray that this verse is implemented in your life: But you will receive power when the Holy Spirit has come upon you, and you will be my witnesses in Jerusalem and in all Judea and Samaria, and to the end of the earth." (Acts 1:8)

Always remember that the UCC Prayer Team is ready to pray for your special needs. No request is too small. Please send in your prayer request by going to uccsda.org/#prayer.
