

Welcome to Eastgate SDA Church!

A message from Elder Kristy Bartlett

This world is not my home! I'm just a passing through! What do you think of when you hum this tune? And with all of the turmoil in this world right now, aren't you glad this world is not our home? My treasures are laid up somewhere beyond the blue. Our world is in confusion and people are fearful. War and strife, famine and disasters are in every corner. Sickness and death haunt us. I don't want to live here anymore! We have the blessed hope of living in a new home with Jesus. Our citizenship is in heaven. Philippians 3:20 says, "But we are citizens of heaven, where the Lord Jesus Christ lives. And we are eagerly waiting for him to return as our Savior." NLT

By faith Abraham obeyed and traveled to a place, not knowing where he was going. By faith he went to live in the land of promise as in a foreign land ... for he was looking forward to the city that has foundations, whose designer and builder is God. Hebrews 11:8. If we are citizens of heaven then we are travelers or sojourners, realizing this world IS NOT our home!

Are your thoughts and conversations about heaven and being with Jesus, our Savior and friend? Are you excited to be going there?

When I go traveling, I have to prepare. I decide where I am going, ask for time off, figure out how I will get there, save money, buy tickets, learn about the destination, pack and maybe even get a passport. All of this time I am excited and as the day gets closer for travel, I get more excited! I tell my family and friends. The anticipated day finally arrives, an opportunity to learn and see new things.

Friends, the day is coming soon for us to go to our heavenly home. Jesus IS coming for us! He has promised. Jesus has already given us our passports! He died and paid the price for our eternal life. Are you ready for this special day? This special trip to heaven with our angels? We are going to see things we can't imagine! Imagine seeing Jesus coming in the clouds with the angels! Seeing our loved ones who will be raised to life! Imagine traveling through the vast universe for a whole week! Past our Milky Way galaxy, and on through uncountable galaxies (Hubble estimates at least 100 billion galaxies) until we reach the gates of heaven! It is going to be amazing! Heaven will be our forever home and Jesus will be our king!!

Spend time with Jesus each day. Talk to him. Read His promises, study about Jesus' life, sing joyful songs and share this excitement with your family, friends and neighbors!

March 5, 2022 — Local Church Budget

Appeal: 1 Kings 17:14 “For this is what the Lord, the God of Israel, says: ‘The jar of flour will not be used up and the jug of oil will not run dry until the day the Lord sends rain on the land.’”

A Regular and Dependable God. We choose to give regularly and systematically because of the regularity of God’s care for us. The story of the Shunamite widow’s oil and flour testifies loudly about the God whose compassions never fail and are new every morning. Every single day during these three and half years of famine, there was food on her table. She never missed a single meal. God faithfully realized His promise in response to the widow’s action to provide first for Elijah, the man of God. During these days of scarcity, God’s miracle was as consistent as dawn. God remains consistent even today. A family had recently settled in a new country and encountered some financial challenges. Their family budget was not balancing. They decided to skim out all superfluous expenses, but that was not enough. It was now time for some drastic decisions; to either cut their giving to the church or not enroll their son in his piano classes. Both decisions would be temporary until their financial condition improved. Prayerfully but painfully, they chose the second option, no piano lessons. A few days later, early in the morning, the wife picked an envelope from their living room floor. The envelope was sealed and had no name written on it. When they opened the envelope, great was their surprise to find money inside! The amount was more than enough for the fee for at least three months of piano lessons. They experienced the consistency of God’s care. Some life circumstances may tempt us to interrupt our regularity in worshipping God with our resources. If this is our struggle, let us allow God’s faithfulness and regularity to inspire us. This week, in response to God’s consistency, we worship Him with our tithe and regular offerings.

Prayer: Lord, thank you for being the unchanging, eternal God on whom we can depend for our daily sustenance. Help us to reflect Your image of regularity in faithfulness.

Walla Walla University Theology Students to share in the presentation of our Worship Service

A group of students from Dr. Pedrito Mynard-Reid's Church Worship class is here today to apply some of what they have been learning and studying. Their class includes creative ways to look at and plan a worship service. You will see their talents and creativity as we welcome them here this Sabbath.

Mother's Room ~ Small Child Space for Fathers

Our Mother's Room is a space for new mothers where they can care for the needs of their infants and toddlers and still be able to engage with and follow along with the worship process in the main sanctuary.

Fathers who may need to take their turn at caring for their young ones should be aware of a multi-use space in what we call our library. There are a couple of rocking chairs for calming little ones who may need to be snuggled. This room is also a transition room where training of little ones can take place as needed. This room will continue to be a multi-function room where committees and small groups can meet during the week and during Sabbath school time.

Sometimes as parents we find it challenging to deal with children who have not yet developed the ability to sit quietly during church. This library area may be a solution for these parents who are trying to deal with children and also remain engaged in the service. Please bring your own quiet toys for your child. Due to viral transference concerns the church is not currently providing toys.

As a church family; we want our young parents to know that we welcome them and their small charges into the space where we “do” church. Yet when needed, please be aware of the spaces that are available for you to use when little ones need to exercise their lungs, voices or feet☺

Face to Face Weekly Prayer Meeting in the Church Youth Room!

This group meets every Wednesday Evening at 6:30. Please join us as we experience the power of the Holy Spirit being poured out on our church. "There is great need of secret prayer, but there is also need that several Christians meet together and unite with earnestness their petitions to God." – In Heavenly Places, p. 91. Questions? Please call Carol at 509-200-0587 or Dixie at 509-301-2827.

Introducing Small Group Opportunities

By Pastor Luke Self

A recent study out of Harvard University revealed that over a third of all Americans, and nearly two-thirds of young adults, experience “serious loneliness.” As you can imagine, living through a pandemic has only increased loneliness among us. While we may not be able to conquer the problem of loneliness across the nation, we at least want to ensure that everyone in our Eastgate Church family feels connected.

Why is connection so important? For one, God created humanity to be relational. He said, “It is not good that man should be alone” (Genesis 2:18). Because of our God-given relational nature, the Gospel is powerless to transform lives in a vacuum. Instead, life-transforming discipleship happens within the context of healthy community. This is why small groups are so critical to church life, and this is why we hope to start more small groups for our Eastgate Church family to join.

We know life is already busy, and we don’t want small groups to be yet another item on your ever-growing to-do list. How do we ensure that small group involvement is simple enough not to be burdensome and yet meaningful enough to make a difference? After much prayer, discussion, and consultation with other church leaders who have successfully launched small groups, we have a plan.

We’re currently looking for people to lead small groups that are defined by the following Five S’s:

- Semester-based. There will be three small group semesters in a year: fall, spring, and summer. Each semester lasts about twelve weeks, with a one-month rest/promotion period in between each semester. Why semester based? For one, it’s a lot easier to commit to something for twelve weeks than it is to commit to something indefinitely. It also gives leaders a chance to rest and recharge to avoid burnout.
- Shared Interest. Each group will gather around a shared interest or passion. There might be a running group, a vegan cooking group, a Revelation study group, or any other group you can think of. This makes it easier to incorporate a small group into your busy life. Joining a group based on shared interest means being able to do what you already enjoy doing, only with a small group of people. It also allows everyone, regardless of where they are on the faith spectrum, to participate and belong.

- Spiritual. Not every group will involve a Bible study or long seasons of prayer. That's okay. Discipleship doesn't only happen while studying the Bible and praying. Discipleship happens whenever and wherever the Spirit moves. We just ask that each leader include a spiritual moment, like a prayer or a brief devotional thought, and give the Spirit room to work while your group is birdwatching, or cooking, or knitting.
- Social. Some groups are social by nature, while others are more task oriented. To encourage all groups to connect socially, we ask that each group plan one social event, such as a potluck or a bowling night, during the semester.
- Service-oriented. Rounding off the holistic nature of these groups is the service dimension. We encourage each group to find a way to serve the community together at least once during the semester.

Of course, in order to have these types of groups, we first need people willing to lead them. If this sounds like the kind of group you'd be willing to lead, we'd love to hear from you. We're planning a training session for Sabbath afternoon on March 19 for leaders wanting to lead groups for the summer semester (May through July). To express interest in leading a group, please contact Luke Self at luke.self@gmail.com or 503-312-4355. You can also tell the pastor or any of the elders, who will pass along your information to Luke. You do not need to commit to leading a group to attend the training event. Feel free to attend to learn more and ask questions to determine if it's right for you.

This is the second posting of this information. Thank you for reading!

Keeping the financial health of our church in mind ~ Giving Plan

How your local church budget fits into "My Personal Giving Plan"

Like every family, the local church family has financial obligations to meet. Some are easy to see like power and heat, but many are not so obvious: children's magazines, Sabbath School Bible study guides, teaching supplies, staff salaries, cleaning services, church school operating expenses, property insurance, worthy student fund, and community outreach. These are but a few of the costs that must be met month after month as the local church seeks to be a light in the community. Because these expenses are constant, My Personal Giving Plan recommends that 3-5% of one's income be set aside for the local church budget. This systematic giving ensures that all share both in the blessings and the responsibilities of the local congregation.

The North American Division encourages the use of the "My Personal Giving Plan." This plan was developed as a guideline to assist members in systematic giving. The plan suggests that, in addition to returning 10% of a member's personal income as tithe, certain percentages may be dedicated as offerings to three main categories:

- Local Church Budget: 3-5%
- Conference Advance: 1-2%
(Education, evangelism, VBS, summer camps, and union magazines)
- World Budget: 1-3%

*Visit www.personalgivingplan.com to see a more extensive breakdown for each category.

Podcast Explores How the Seventh-Day Adventist Church Works

The Seventh-day Adventist Church in North America is at a crossroads. Younger Adventists in particular are questioning whether the church is relevant to their personal lives and the world they experience. In response, the Adventist Learning Community has launched “How the Church Works,” an 11-part podcast that examines Adventist history, identity, and legacy, and Adventism's relevance in our changing world. Find out where to listen at howthechurchworks.com.

Food and Mood: What We Eat Affects How We Feel

Depression rates among adults in the U.S. have tripled from a pre-pandemic rate of 8.5 percent to 32.8 percent. What are the contributing factors? Has the pandemic affected eating habits? Is there a biblical connection between lifestyle choices and mental health? The North American Division Health Ministries' Joy of Eating Club discusses all this and more at news.uccsda.org/FoodMood122.

RELIGIOUS LIBERTY CAMPAIGN 2022: January 8, until March 31, 2022

This is an annual event which celebrates freedom of conscience, a heritage and the blessing we received from our Constitutional Founders, but one that requires continual vigilance to maintain.

In harmony with holdings by the U.S. Supreme Court, the Seventh-day Adventist Church believes that government at any level does not have the constitutional right to instruct anyone how to pray, when to pray, and who to pray to, let alone what religion to believe in – if any at all.

The founders of the nation wisely sought to guard against the employment of secular power on the part of the church, with its inevitable result – intolerance and persecution.

Prayer Time ~ Cherishing People ~ "Pray for one another."
