

Welcome to Eastgate SDA Church! A message from Pastor Eric Saylor

Several years ago our family was blessed to visit Costa Rica. Our vacation home was down on the southwestern coast so after an 8 hour drive we arrived at our temporary abode.

As we entered the structure it was immediately obvious that we weren't in Walla Walla anymore: the walls were porous!

The entire building was made of bamboo. The walls were not solid, and the windows had no screens or glass.

All that said, the house was perfectly functional. Ocean breezes and refreshing jungle scents wafted through the space. Anoles chased insects across the ceiling, and Macaws eyed us through the open windows.

This structure was perfectly effective for its purpose and location.

This Sabbath as we explore the next principle of our Healthy Church series we'll be examining the idea of "Effective Structures." I hope you can join us!

As always, we'll be live-streaming our worship service so if you are unable to attend in person you can worship with us virtually!

I pray you are blessed.

~Pastor Eric

Jubilee Lake Potluck Picnic ~ Planned for July 16 following church service

Following worship service in Walla Walla at our church, travel and meet at the lake. Signs will direct you to the group picnic area. The first thing would be to share a potluck picnic Slupper. Don't forget to bring your lawn chairs and a folding table if you have one and afternoon toys. The afternoon will include the opportunity to hike and possibly canoe. (if canoes and trailer to transport these to the lake can be located and arranged for). [Ask Tess about "Slupper"]

Tess Craig will lead out in this as Wendy Rick & family will be unable to attend.

July 16, 2022 — Local Church Budget

Appeal: 2 Kings 4:7 She went and told the man of God, and he said, "Go, sell the oil and pay your debts. You and your sons can live on what is left."

Live on What is Left. We worship the God who makes promises and provides instructions. Our Bible text describes the initiative of a widow after she has experienced a miracle, a room full of jars with oil. She returned to Elisha to express gratitude. Then, the prophet spoke these final words to her: "Live on what is Left!"

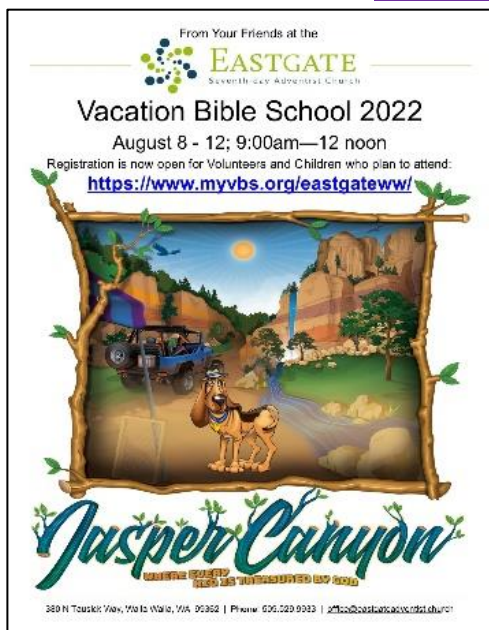

These words stand as a promise about the sufficiency of God's provision. She does not have to fear for her future. They are also an instruction not to live on borrowed resources. Previously, her family contracted a huge debt which resulted in painful consequences. Elisha's departing advice was for her to manage wisely. The Lord does not only perform miracles, but He also teaches us how to use our blessings. The instruction "live on what is left" is much relevant for us today. Across the world, a quarter of people polled did not agree with the statement “before I buy something, I carefully consider whether I can afford it” (OECD, 2017). Personal financial management is a major deficiency for our generation, bringing disastrous consequences. Believers who have the best intentions to partner in God’s mission often do not because their finances are in a mess. These words are unfortunately a common description of reality: “Many do not remember the cause of God, and carelessly expend money in holiday amusements, in dress and folly, and when there is a call made for the advancement of the work in home and foreign missions, they have nothing to give, or even have OVERDRAWN their account. (Ellen G. White, R. & H., Dec. 19, 1893). As we claim His promises daily, let us also be diligent in the management of our resources. Some may be struggling not because the Lord has not already blessed them but of their lack of self-discipline and good management. This week as we worship with our tithe and regular and offerings let us choose to be better managers of God’s resources.

Prayer: Lord, Your promises bring peace and comfort to us. We thank You also for Your instructions because they provide directions for our life.

Expansion of Support Teams for Audio/Video and Live-Streaming ~ Help Needed!

We are trying to gear up for two services starting August 6. This is one area of ministry where more experienced operators would help to lighten the load. Brian Hartman who leads the Live-Streaming Team is looking for one or two more individuals who would be willing to learn and assist in the ministry of our On-line Worship Service. There are those who use our YouTube as an option for viewing for a variety of reasons. We need to expand the team and he would be happy to speak to anyone who might be interested. Contact Brian at hartmaninbox@gmail.com or 509-240-6607 text or voice call.

Mother’s Room ~ Small Child Space for Fathers

Our Mother’s Room is a space for new mothers where they can care for the needs of their infants and toddlers and still be able to engage with and follow along with the worship process in the main sanctuary. Please do not leave children there unsupervised.

Fathers who may need to take their turn at caring for their young ones should be aware of a multi-use space in what we call our library. There are a couple of rocking chairs for calming little ones who may need to be snuggled. This room is also a transition room where training of little ones can take place as needed. This room will continue to be a multi-function room where committees and small groups can meet during the week and during Sabbath school time.

Please bring your own quiet toys for your child.

Two Services to return to Eastgate SDA Church

Beginning Sabbath, August 6, 2022

The first Sabbath in August – August 6 we will begin having two services each Sabbath morning. The shift to the first of August seems to make sense in several ways:

- It will give us more time to prepare all the details that this change requires.
- It will accommodate the likely dip in summer attendance.
- It will still allow for a few weeks of double services before attendance increases when school resumes at the end of August. This change of date will allow some very specific time of preparation.

First Service: 9:00 – 10:05am

Church at Study: 10:15 – 11:15am (Sabbath School)

Second Service: 11:30 – 1:00pm(+/-)

Additional Deacons, Deaconesses and Greeters will be needed to assist throughout the extended morning. If you have thought about helping in this area please speak to an elder or to the Pastor.

Weekly Prayer Meeting in the Church Youth Room!

This group meets every Wednesday Evening at 6:30. Please join us as we experience the power of the Holy Spirit being poured out on our church. “There is great need of secret prayer, but there is also need that several Christians meet together and unite with earnestness their petitions to God.” – In Heavenly Places, p. 91. Questions? Please call Carol at 509-200-0587 or Dixie at 509-301-2827.
