

Welcome to Eastgate SDA Church!

A message from Pastor Eric Saylor

Have you ever been misunderstood?

You're not alone.

A wife sent her computer programmer husband to the store saying, "Please buy a loaf of bread. If they have eggs, buy a dozen."

Her husband returned home twenty minutes later with twelve loaves of bread.

This joke might be old but it illustrates the importance of understanding the power of words and the danger of misunderstanding the context of what those words mean.

This Sabbath we're continuing our study of the Letter to the Hebrews as we look into the idea of God's Covenant Son.

This is one of the more misunderstood concepts in scripture and has significant importance for our understanding of who Jesus is and why he came to earth.

I hope you can join in!

We'll have two worship services, one at 9:00 and the second at 11:30 and Sabbath School starts at 10:15.

If you can't worship in person please join us on our 11:30 livestream on our YouTube channel.

Also, Saturday evening you're welcome to join in for our yearly harvest party at the church. It will be a blast!

See you tomorrow!

~ Pastor Eric

Walla Walla University

Appeal: Psalms 144:12 “Let our sons in their youth be as grown-up plants, and our daughters as corner pillars fashioned as for a palace.”

Walla Walla University was founded 130 years ago on the Christian teachings and values as understood and appreciated by the Seventh-day Adventist church. It has existed since December 1892 to provide exceptional education which begins with the integration of faith and learning in a tight knit, socially engaged, active community. During the week, faculty, staff, and students pursue curiosities together and on the weekends they rest, worship, and explore together. At the core of the Walla Walla University experience is the opportunity to discover and nurture a relationship with Jesus Christ in classes, through personal devotions and group worship experiences, and in local and global service. Kelsi Nash, University Relations supervisor states, “Students’ college years represent a time of growth and character shaping. Walla Walla University seeks to create a campus environment that nurtures students’ discipleship to go out from our campus and answer God’s calling through successful lives and careers.” In addition to your offering today, we ask that you continue to pray for Walla Walla University and our students. With your help and God’s continued blessing, Walla Walla University can continue to provide the kind of environment that will prepare our students for a life of purpose.

Prayer: Lord, we thank You for Walla Walla University and ask that You will bless the faculty and students with your guiding Holy Spirit. Give them wisdom in the pursuit of knowledge to enable them to serve you in all capacities.
